THE CITY.

THE SUBSCRIPTION LIST OF THE DAILY NEWS IS LARGER THAN THAT OF ANY OTHER DAILY IN THE STATE, AND MORE THAN DOUBLE THAT OF ANY OTHER DAILY IN RALEIGH. ADVERTISERS WILL MAKE A NOTE OF THIS.

WEATHER REPORT.

For the South Atlantic States, slightly lower barometer, southeast to southwest winds, and generally warmer, clear or partly cloudy weather are probable.

Brooklyn Lodge of Good Templars meets to-night.

Mrs. Beckwith has leased the Central Hotel and will move to-day.

A capable printer of twelve years' experience, wants a situation. Advertiser in another column.

Mr. J. Higgs moved, yesterday, into the late stand of Wayne Alcott, on Fayetteville street, near the Yarbrough.

A fair and festival for the benefit of one of the colored churches of the city, was held last night, in the Market building, third story.

A party of fifteen from Pittsboro and ten from Sanford, expect to pass through this city next Tuesday, en route for the Centennial.

The revival of religion continues at Ebenezer church. Rev. Mr. Thompson and Rev. Mr. Meacham conducted the exercises, yesterday.

The community is sitting back on its haunches, now, chewing tobacco and talking politics, and waiting for the advent of the cotton season.

So August steps down and out to-day, and with it the summer season. In a little time, now, we will be in the midst of the glorious autumnal season, with its variegated beauties of field and forest.

The large advertisement of Messrs. Julius Lewis & Co., on fourth page, should attract attention. These gentlemen are liberal advertisers, and men who advertise liberally always deal so with their patrons; people who can afford to advertise can afford to sell cheaply.

We see it stated that Katie Putnam, the popular little actress who is so warmly remembered by our North Carolina people, has recently been married to Mr. J. J. Sullivan, who, it will be remembered, was her leading support when the company was last in this State.

A gentleman was attacked with vertigo, last evening, as he went home from his place of business, and fell as he reached the porch of his residence. The family was, of course, considerably alarmed, and a physician was speedily sent for, who discovered that the ailment was slight and its effects would only be temporary.

Professor of Natural History in the University.

The Executive Committee of the University have been looking about for some weeks to find a Professor competent to teach practically, Zoology, Botany, Geology, Mineralogy, &c., in other words, NATURAL HISTORY. They have found him in the person of Prof. W. H. Smith, late of the University of Michigan, who has made these studies a specialty, and has a reputation for great proficiency in them.

The University of Michigan has a high character with its extensive numerous and learned Professors, for turning out men skilled in the branches relating to Agriculture, and as we hear that Prof. Smith is young, enthusiastic, and a hard worker, we look for a new departure in this direction at our University.

The Graded School.

There are now upon the rolls of the Graded School, 406 pupils, though the number in attendance is not so great as this. A great want which the school will so in feel, is that of a furnace with which to heat the building, and how this is to be gotten, is a question. The young idea can't shoot when it is freezing, and the Pierian spring isn't worth a cent when its waters are imbued through chattering teeth. This being the case, some gentlemen who have a number of them lying around loose, and who wishes to distinguish himself and "do the state some service," would greatly add to the bodily comfort of a ten-acre lot of soon-to-be trembling urchins, if he would "ante up" with a furnace.

The Taxes.

The tax books are in the hands of the Sheriff, who is now ready to have the people come forward and settle. He expects the people of the city to come to his office and pay their taxes. He will make three tours of the county, calling upon these people for their taxes. The first, will probably be the latter part of September or first of October, but in this the Sheriff will accommodate himself to the county candidates. It may be well to say, in this connection, that very few of the merchants have made their returns of the purchase tax levied upon them, and if this is not done speedily, there may be indictments against them at the next term of court.

Send your job work to the News office.

Personal.

Gov. Vance left for Charlotte, yesterday morning, and Judge Settle for Magnolia.

Hon. D. G. Fowle left on the Western bound train, yesterday morning, with Gov. Vance. He has an engagement to speak to-morrow at Charlotte, upon the occasion of the raising of a Tilden and Vance flag in that city. He won't address a more intelligent, a more appreciative, or in any sense a finer audience during the campaign, than he will to-morrow.

Hon. M. W. Ransom arrived in the city, yesterday afternoon, from Catawba Springs, where he left his family. Like the faithful party-man that he is, Gen. Ransom will begin the canvass as soon as he receives his instructions from the State Executive Committee.

Maj. Jos. A. Engelhard, is still in the city. He will leave to-morrow, on the eastern train, and on Saturday, the 2d, will address the people of Duplin, at Kenansville.

Dr. J. T. Leach, and Messrs. A. M. Noble and James Edmundson, of Johnston, who were in the city, yesterday, say that the success of our ticket in that county is already assured, and that, too, by a handsome majority.

Our correspondent with the gubernatorial candidates, has gone to Greensboro, thence to Charlotte, where he will join the candidates and go across the mountains with them again.

Messrs. Jo. Mullen, Pomp. Bryan and Chas. Howard, have gone to the Centennial.

F. H. Busbee, Esq., has returned from Philadelphia and New York, and expects to begin the canvass with his competitor, Ike Strayhorn, about the 15th of September.

Rev. W. C. Norman, pastor of Pearson Street M. E. Church, is absent from the city.

Col. W. H. H. Tucker and neices, arrived safely in New York city, on Tuesday.

North Carolina's Wealth.

The forthcoming report of the Auditor, to which we have alluded several times, of late, will contain a statement showing the value of real and personal property in the State, including horses, mules, jacks, jennets, goats, cattle, hogs and sheep, farming utensils, &c., money on hand or on deposit, solvent credits, stock in incorporated companies, goods, wares and merchandise, other personal property, and railroad franchises, as per return to the department numbered 30, 1875. With this we have prepared a comparative statement, taken from the last report of the Auditor, showing the relative value of real and personal property in the State in '75 and '74. We find that the value of lands as per returns for 1875, are $75,309,799; for '74, $74,489,707; gain for '75, $820,092. Value of town property as per returns of '75, $17,047,321; value in '74, $16,414,319; gain for '75, $633,002. Value of live stock, &c., for '75, $16,083,098; value in '74, $14,888,740; gain for '75, $1,194,358. Value of farming utensils, money, solvent credits, &c., for '75, $43,505,807; value for '74, $34,160,595; gain for '75, $9,345,212. Total valuation of property in the State as per returns of 1875, $152,549,023; total for 1874, $139,958,361. Total gain in valuation of 1875 over 1874, $12,590,662.

The total returns for 1874, showed $143,723,813, hence the falling off of '74 from '75, was $8,770,452. In view of this fact, that there should be a gain of $12,512,662 in '75 over '74, this is truly a gratifying exhibit!

Hard Cider and the Freedman's Bank.

Hard cider was abundant at the speaking at Pittsboro last Monday, and opposition was so strong that, through "cutting rates," the beverage fell in price. One old darkey had bought a barrel to make his fortune on. He paid 20 cents a gallon for it, and sold it out at 5 cents per quart, with a "taste," as they call it, thrown in. At night, when he came to count up profits and losses, he found that he had four dollars in greenbacks and one dollar in silver. His cider had cost him six dollars, and his money, of course, would not hold out, but as he had a silver dollar, he concluded that it's value was more than enough to make up the deficit, so he said that "he sho' had made dat dollar clear, an' he was gwine for ter look it up in his own chint, so dat de bosses ob de Freedman's Bank could'nt git it away fum him no how."

Excursion to Ridgeway.

Capt. J. W. Horton will run an excursion from Raleigh to Ridgeway on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad next Sunday, leaving here at 7 o'clock a. m., and arriving at Ridgeway about 10:30, and returning, leave Ridgeway at 3:30 and arrive here at 7 p. m. Separate cars will be provided for white and colored. This will afford business men and others an opportunity to breathe a little fresh air in the country, and we have no doubt many will take advantage of it. Fare for the round trip, $1.

Digests of the Supreme Court Decisions.

We begin this morning the publication of digests of the opinions of the Supreme Court delivered at its recent term. These, as published from day to day, will be of interest and value to the legal profession particularly.

An action on the official bond of the Register of Deeds, for issuing a license to marry a girl under eighteen years of age, without the written consent of her father or mother, cannot be maintained. The remedy of the plaintiff is either by indictment, or an action for damages against the Register of Deeds individually. Moretz v. Ray. (Holt v. McLean.)

A contract, void for illegality of consideration, secured by a bond to pay money, is not cured by the substitution of new consideration. The old one, for the same or some other amount between the same parties. Nor does the adding of a mortgage as an additional security, make any difference. Steele v. Holt.

One who has been adjudged a bankrupt, may maintain an action in his own name, upon a promissory note, which has been assigned to him as a part of his personal property exemption, under the 14th section of the Bankrupt Act.

A verbal promise made by a bankrupt, after he has received his certificate of discharge, to pay a note theretofore executed by him, is valid and binding. Henly v. Sanier.

A devised as follows: "I give to Chloe D. and husband, and Catherine H. and husband, and Alfred D. and wife, * * *, my tract of land, called * * *, &c.; the said Chloe and husband and Catherine and husband and Alfred and wife to hold their part said land during their lives, and then to go to their children;" Held, that only the children of Catherine H. begotten by Henry H., the children of Chloe D. begotten by David D., and the children of Alfred D. by his then wife, were entitled under the will, and not the children of said parties generally. Chloe Davenport and others, ex parte.

Owners of exoneratory bequests and other contingent interests, cannot recover damages for waste already committed. They are entitled, however, to have their interest protected from threatened waste or destruction by injunctive relief. Gordon v. Lowther.

A creditor has the right to subject the land itself of his deceased debtor to the satisfaction of his debt, although there has been partition among the heirs. And one of the heirs cannot discharge his share of the land by offering to pay his part of the debt, or the amount at which it was assessed to him in the partition. Hinton v. Whitehair.

A party may be compelled to attend court, and be examined in behalf of a co-defendant, or a co-defendant, "as to any matter in which he is not justly interested, reliable," &c.; and in such case he is entitled to pay as a witness. Penny v. Brink & Eder.

A son is allowed to fight only in the necessary defense of his father; and to exonerate himself, he must plead and show, that his father would have been beaten, had he, the son, not interfered. If a father and his adversary are engaged in a fight on equal terms, the son's interference is not justifiable. State v. Johnson.

After a defendant has entered a defence to an action of ejectment, he cannot be permitted to allege that others are also in possession with him, and have the title and the sole possession. If such defendant meant to disavow any possession in himself, he should not have entered any defence. McClellan v. McLeod.

The executor of a testator, who has been allowed to carry on a suit in forma pauperis, may, when he applies to be made a party, continue such suit without giving bond, by filing a petition and showing a proper case. Huntin v. Neighbors.

Temperance at Ebenezer.

There was a grand temperance rally at Ebenezer Church in this county, yesterday. Theo. N. Ramsey, G. W. C. T. addressed a large audience in the afternoon. The Lodge of Good Templars at this place numbers sixty members, and much good has already resulted since its organization. There are now twenty lodges in Wake county, and the cry is still they come. Mr. Ramsey is still on the war-path. He is actively canvassing this county with great success. He will lecture at Cary Monday night.

Rumor of Another Church.

It is rumored that there is a project on foot to build a Second Presbyterian Church in this city. If it is built, it will be in the northern section of the city, and there is talk of an effort to purchase, for this purpose, the vacant lot at the corner of Salisbury and Furwood streets. A Second Presbyterian Sunday School was organized last Sunday, at a house near the car shed of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad.

Good News from the West.

A letter received, yesterday afternoon, gives glowing accounts of the canvass in the western counties. Capt. Jarvis, Gen. Leach and Bill Smith, returned to Asheville on the 26th, from a tour through the counties of Haywood, Jackson, Graham, Macon, Cherokee and Clay, and our correspondent says that these counties will give a large increase over the vote of 1872. The canvass has been all that our friends could wish. Capt. Jarvis crushed Smith the first day, on his vote in the Convention of 1868, against allowing the people, where none vote but white men, to elect their Justices of the Peace; Smith denied that he had ever so voted, and when Capt. Jarvis drew the journal on him, he wilted. He has said nothing since then, of taking away the people's rights. It is said that if the people who know him could hear him up there, they would hardly recognize him. He very rarely alludes to Vance, and then only to speak well of him, while Capt. Jarvis gives Settle hall columbia on his habes corpus record.

Smith says in his speeches that he voted in the Convention of 1861, to refer the ordinance of secession to the people. There is no truth whatever in this assertion. There was no proposition to refer this question to the people, and Smith was among those who signed the ordinance. The horn-blower is getting the worst of it, and will probably pull his head out after the 20th of September, up to which time they have appointments, commencing on the 5th at Wilkes, then taking Stokes, Surry, Yadkin, Forsythe and Guilford.

Republican Nominations in the Third District—Settle Speaks.

A telegram received last night from Magnolia, brings the information that the Republican Convention, of the Third District, which assembled there, yesterday nominated for Congress, W. P. Cannady, of Wilmington, at present Mayor of that city, and one of the Commissioners of the Western North Carolina Railroad. Neill McCoy, of Harnett, is "no parlor and kitchen man," was chosen Elector, and will cause the negroes to "fairly this one more time."

Judge Settle was present and made a speech, and then went on to Wilmington, where he was to have spoken last night.

Vance When He Got Home.

The operator in Charlotte, last night, broke right into the middle of a sentence while the operator here was sending a dispatch, and told him to do stop awhile; that Vance had got home and the band was passing by, and they were having just such a time as the parrot and the monkey had. The town had gone down to the depot, with bands and phoetons and things, and the Zeb Vance Club, (that's what they call it there where "Zebbies" live), was master of ceremonies. The operator didn't say that Vance spoke, but he didn't say that he was killed, either; therefore we know that he spoke.

A Kindly Offer.

Messrs. Thos. H. Briggs & Sons have addressed a note to Rev. Dr. Pritchard, chairman of the committee of the Sunday School excursion, informing him that they will be glad to present to each member of the excursion party a copy of "The International Exhibition Guide," recently published by Capt. R. T. Fulghum, of this city. Dr. Pritchard replies in a note of warm thanks, expressing his unqualified appreciation of this generous offer. We have no doubt the members of the party will appreciate duly the liberality which prompted this offer on the part of Messrs. Briggs & Sons.

A Valuable Book.

Upon receipt of two dollars, we will send to any of our subscribers, the Life of the Hon. Samuel J. Tilden, Democratic nominee for President of the United States, to which is added a sketch of the Life of the Hon. Thos. A. Hendricks. This volume contains 449 pages of reading matter, and is handsomely bound in cloth. It contains the proceedings of the Democratic Convention at St. Louis, the addresses and letters of acceptance, and the leading speeches of Governor Tilden, including his own interesting account of the overthrow of the Tammany Ring, &c.

Sudden Death at Chapel Hill.

We learn that a young gentleman named Wood, we believe from Perquimans county, who arrived on Friday evening last at Chapel Hill, and purposed to enter the University, died suddenly on Saturday morning. We have no further particulars. Hillboro Recorder.

We have authority for saying that the information of the Recorder as to this matter, is erroneous. There is no Wood, or Perquimans, at the University, and the only other Wood there (of Chowan) is in perfect health. No one of any name connected with the University or purposing to be connected with it, has died recently.

The Bogus Banks Ceded Lands.

We repaired to the Capitol, on yesterday, in search of items, and found the officers, that we saw, non-communicative, as they had nothing to report. The Governor and his Private Secretary had just gone to dinner. We engaged in an interesting conversation with Treasurer Jenkins, while his chief clerk was compiling from his ledger a statement of the amounts paid claimants on the fund apportioned to former holders of the lands called Bogus Banks, on which Fort Macon now stands, which were ceded to the United States in the year 1825. He was preparing these statements for a correspondent who made the enquiry. These payments were made at various times from 1838 to 1860.

"Lie Like I—And Stick to It."

RALEIGH, N. C., Aug. 30, 1876.

"To carry the next election we must lie like hell," says Ike Young. Mr. Editor: Ike Young, in conversation with some gentlemen in Johnston, to-day, said the social equality procession which escorted the Republican candidates for Governor from the depot, yesterday, was headed by 200 white men. Now, the thousands of citizens of Raleigh who saw that speckled crowd know that Ike Young told a lie when he said this; for there were not more than 40, (by actual count,) speckled white men in the procession, and half of those were workmen from the postoffice building, who were called up after work the evening before, and made to sign their names that they would go to meet Judge Settle, and they did it knowing that if they did not go they would be discharged. Ike is carrying out to perfection, the instructions he gave to his party, and may well be called "Ike Ike."

ONE OF THE INFANT CLASS.

Gov. Vance's Appointments.

Gov. Vance and Judge Thos. Settle will address their fellow citizens at the following places and times:

Hayesville, Clay county, Monday, September 4th.

Our subscribers will greatly oblige us by giving prompt information of any delay in receiving their papers.

VANCE-to-day encounters some of the same "dexterous appliances of unprincipled partisanship" that he met in 1863; and partisanship now, as then, traduces his principles and slanders his name.

If the white men of North Carolina wish their wives to visit a neighbor or their daughters to go to a country school unmolested by negro brutes, they must vote for white men to rule the State.

DR. WHEELER, Republican candidate for State Treasurer together with about 1,500 other citizens, on the 26th of August, 1873, endorsed in flattering terms, "the firm and patriotic course of Gov. Vance."

We had a notion that the war was over until Judge Settle began his canvass. It would not surprise us any day to see him put on his war-dress, draw his sword, and strut around to find somebody to drum out of camp.

THERE is more incendiaryism, more rape, and more robbery, going on than was ever known before in North Carolina. The increase of crime is the logical result of the inflammatory teachings and evil influence of the bad Radicals upon the negro population.

THE Springfield (Mass.) Republican, an independent paper says: "Messrs. Hayes and Wheeler are indebted for their good fortune—if it is good fortune—to two things. Personally all that is upright and amiable, they have not made themselves offensive to the honest men of the country; and they have done nothing to earn the ill-will and dread of the thieves."

THE COUNTRY'S PERIL.

Ever since General Grant, says an able contemporary, was first made President, it has been evident that he looked upon the position as something that was his due, on account of services rendered to the country. His taste of power has engendered such a desire for its continuance, that he was greatly annoyed when he found it impossible to secure a third term. All his actions have been conceived and carried out with supreme contempt for the wishes or the interests of the people who placed him where he is. He has exercised his authority as a despot, who was far removed from responsibility to any one for what he did, and he looked for a third term to establish his power upon a permanent basis. According to his idea, the people were made to obey and he to govern.

The third term being out of the question, it remained to devise a plan by which the advocate's ambitious designs might be carried out with another in the presidential chair. Everything was therefore done to defeat Blaine's aspirations for the succession. He would be President de facto as well as de jure, and would therefore not do. A lucky hit was made in the choice of Governor Hayes. He would be pliable enough and sufficiently easy to manage. Indeed, he was just the man, and now that Grant so sees it, he is straining every nerve to secure his election.

Hayes' success can only be obtained through the work of Grant's civil advisers. It is this achieved he will be supported in his position by the same men. They will control and he will do as they decree. Then either Sherman will be removed and Grant put in his place, or the command will be divided, and Grant given rank and authority equal to Sherman. He will be in full accord with the men who have pledged themselves to his designs, and together they will, under the cloak of Hayes, apply to the whole country the same principles of government as are now enforced upon the South. The plan will work much better when it can be carried out ostensibly under the orders of another. The people, who do not wish to undergo another bitter struggle to release their country from the iron grasp of a military despotism, must be up and working now. If Governor Tilden be not the next President of the United States, it may be a long time before the ballot shall again decide who shall occupy the seat of Government.

THE CAMPAIGN IN THE EAST.

We present several letters from the eastern section of the State, showing the political prospects in that quarter, the work that has been done, &c. Many of the counties east of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad have been thoroughly canvassed by Jarvis, Engelhard, Kenan, Wooten, Latham and others. They have done splendid work. Large crowds have attended the speakings; an intense enthusiasm has been aroused; and we can safely say that the Democratic strength in the East has been augmented.

Greater interest in a canvass has never been manifested. People have turned out, who from one cause and another have stayed away from the polls since the war. Numbers who despaired of the country have been induced to come out and take a hand in the work of redemption; and we are reliably informed that many converts from Radicalism may be set down as some of the immediate fruits of the arguments, appeals, and eloquence of Kenan, Engelhard, Jarvis, and others who have taken the stump for Reform.

There can be hardly a reasonable doubt entertained now that the counties above referred to, will give an increased Democratic vote over that polled in 1872. No people in North Carolina are so deeply and vitally interested in the result of the election as the white citizens of those counties where negroes predominate; and they cannot be too active or earnest in their efforts to supplement the labors of Jarvis, Kenan, Engelhard, Wooten, Stanford and Latham.

A GIRL'S TRIBUTE TO VANCE.

The enthusiasm of the people for Zebulon B. Vance and for the noble cause he represents is already beginning to find vent in rhymes and songs. The poetical spirit of a little thirteen year old girl caught fire in Jonesboro the other day, when she heard the familiar, and three welcome voice of our next Governor, ringing upon the air; and she dashed off the following creditable verses for one so young:

Hark! what sound is this we hear falling sublimely on the ear?
'Tis the voice of Carolina's son,
Who has so many laurels won.

List! what cause do these men plead?
The cause of virtue we so much need.
In this man behold the candidate
For the office of Governor of the Old North State.

Hark! this voice is as sublime
As if it came from a summer clime;
It speaks of freedom, joy, and peace,
From Radical Government sure release.

'Tis the voice of Z. B. Vance we hear,
Let the lovers of sound Government come near;
He'll tell you about the Radical work
In the horrible war of Col. Kirk.

And now who is this other man?
Vance will tell you, for he can,
As was of the Judges one
When Col. Kirk's war begun.

The Judiciary to this war gave aid
And sanctioned all Col. Kirk said
The sufferers asked to be relieved,
"The Judiciary is exhausted," was the answer they received.

DR. WHEELER, now a warm anti-Vance man, was one of those citizens of Forsyth county, who, in 1863, resolved, "That we have a firm faith in his (Vance's) conservatism, and that neither the fulsome flattery, nor deceitful praise, nor dexterous appliances of unprincipled partisanship who before his election traduced his principles and slanders his name, can swerve him from his duty, nor even tempt him to the abandonment of his conservative principles or his friends." Higher commendation than this, no man could desire.

We refer our readers to an explanation on the subject of the infamous speech attributed to Col. Hargrove. The language said to have been used by the Attorney General, in his inflammatory harangue at Oxford, first appeared in a letter published in the Sentinel. It was copied into the Oxford Torchlight; which paper now says, in its issue of the 29th inst., "that the language was used by him at the time and place we have mentioned, is vouched for upon good Radical authority."

CARL SCHUIZ is now stumping Ohio for Hayes and Wheeler. Yet on the 16th of May, 1876, he issued the Reform Conference Address, in which it is declared, that "a man to be entrusted with the Presidency this year must have deserved not only the confidence of honest men, but also the fear and hatred of thieves. He who manages to conciliate thieves cannot be the candidate for honest men."

COL. KENAN and John F. Wooten, Democratic Elector in the Second Congressional District, have just concluded an effective canvass of the counties of Wayne, Wilson, Greene and Lenoir. They spoke at Contentnea Creek in Lenoir on Thursday last, to a large and enthusiastic crowd. There has been a full attendance at each of the speakings; and the good work goes bravely on.

THE head and front of the Republican party of North Carolina, Ex-Gov. W. W. Holden, during the war called on the authorities to raise the whole male population, and said, "put them in the militia if they won't volunteer; drill them until their legs get timber; blow the fire, beat the drum, and rouse their latent courage, if they have any."

THE Democrats of Johnston have placed this admirable ticket in the field: For the Senate, L. B. Waddell; for the House, H. J. Ryals and Dr. Farquid Smith. Col. Waddell was in the last Senate from Johnston; and made a good record. He is one of the strongest men before the people in his section of the State.

THE Vance Proclamation against deserters, was dated May 11, 1863. The Forsyth Resolutions were adopted August 26, 1863—three months later. From 1,200 to 1,500 people were present. Dr. W. H. Wheeler made an eloquent speech on the occasion; and of course endorsed the proceedings.

THE Republicans charge that Capt. W. H. Crawford, of Rowan, Democratic candidate for Senator, voted in the Legislature of 1864 to conscript all State officers. Well, if he did, he was only trying to carry out the idea of the man who said the "whole safety of the South was confined in five letters—F I G H T."

THE Republicans say Major L. C. Latham, Democratic Elector in the First District, voted in the Legislature of 1864 to conscript all State officers. If that be so it is easily accounted for. Maj. Latham wanted able-bodied men like Solicitor Settle, sent to the front to fight for our imperiled country.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

Davidson Record: Gen. Seales will beat Ku Klux Boyd over 2,000 votes.

Rev. Garland H. White, the colored Democrat, spoke at Battleground on Thursday last.

The Republicans in Edgecombe county have nominated two negroes for the Legislature and three negro commissioners.

Col. H. B. Short was last Saturday nominated for the Senate by the Democrats of Robeson and Columbus counties.

Dick Johnson, an intelligent colored man and ex-member of the House of Representatives from Edgecombe, has declared for Tilden and Vance.

Concord Register: This whole cry of war, war, is the same old trick of the radical leaders to direct the attention of the people from their stealing and plunder.

McIndysee, the Republican civil-rights candidate for Congress in the First District, opened the Congressional campaign at Manteo, Dare county, on Monday last.

The Democrats of Sampson have made the following nominations: Senator, J. L. Stewart; House of Representatives, N. H. Fennell and Dr. J. A. Bizzell; Sheriff, N. Barefoot.

Skilled American mechanics are sailing from New York and other ports to seek in the Old World the work they cannot find in the New World. The remedy of Grant and the Republican party is to put the troops in marching order.

A political straw—Says a correspondent of the Wilson Advance: Samuel W. Watts passed through town last week on his return from Nash Court and it was evident from a few minutes' conversation I had with him that he scents the breezes of radical defeat already.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The colored men of Mississippi are rapidly organizing Tilden and Hendricks Clubs. That's the kind of intimidating weapon to win with.

The Southern States have been robbed and plundered to such an extent that it is impossible for a large number of them to redeem or even pay the interest on their securities. The remedy of Grant and the Republican party is to put the troops in marching order.

Hartford Times: The border settlers are to be left to the tomahawk and scalping knife, and the troops are to be sent into the Southern States to manage the elections. Conservative people will be likely to ask whether such a party is the proper one to control a free government.

Hartford Times: No wonder the people are poor. No wonder trade is stagnant. Our resources have been drained and wasted in riotous living. Over three billions, three hundred and six millions of dollars vanished in the conduct of the Government for the last ten years of peace.

The prospect for the Democracy in the New England States brightens daily. The people are beginning to appreciate fully where the responsibility for unoccupied labor and capital rests, and are determined to make a united effort to put the country again on the road to prosperity.

The fates are against the radical candidates. Here is the light and shade of the two tickets, as suggested by the initials:
Shall Justice Triumph?
Truth And Honesty.
Ruined Beyond Hope.
Worse And Worse.

Indianapolis Sentinel: The arrant hypocrisy of the leaders of the radical party in systematically appealing to the passions and prejudices of men, in order to cover up their scandalous management of the Government during the present administration, is so open and barefaced as to excite the utter contempt of all thinking men.

Judge James Buchanan, for many years prominent in political and legal life in Baltimore, died of paralysis on Wednesday last at Berkeley Springs, W. Va., aged seventy-four. He had held many public trusts, both State and National; was post-master at Baltimore during the term of President Polk, and Minister to Denmark during that of President Buchanan.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

The Campaign in the East—Letter from Lenoir.

KINSTON, N. C. August 18th, 1876.
Mr. Editor:—While much of the space in the columns of your valuable paper has been devoted to correspondence, I have written most encouragingly from all parts of the Old North State, very little has been said about the political prospects in our immediate section, especially the county of Lenoir. That there is as much enthusiasm with us, and as great a desire to get rid of Radicalism, no one who was here on the 10th inst. (when three of our very able speakers and candidates, viz: Hon. T. J. Jarvis, Maj. Englehard and Kenan,) can doubt. We had never before witnessed so much interest in a political speaking here, as manifested on that day, by the people of this county. Many have been voting the Republican ticket or not.

Since the meeting above referred to, the Republicans have had one and had Gov. Brogden and Mr. Hargrove with them. It was announced that they would be here on 17th inst., and preparations made accordingly. So at the appointed time and place they were introduced to about 300 negroes, a dozen white office-holders and 25 Democrats who stood at a respectable distance. Mr. Hargrove led off with the same speech he made here four years ago. He began by trying to inflame the passions of the negroes against their former owners, and just as he was making one of his bitterest appeals, (the stage which had been prepared for our speakers,) "throwed a coldness over the meeting," which was greatly increased by the screams of an old colored woman, who was badly hurt, and apparently injured by being caught under the corner of the stage on which Mr. Hargrove was seated. Mr. Hargrove was much embarrassed by the confusion and suggested that the negroes with horns should blow a little after which performance he walked off his crowd and proceeded to fight the proposed amendments, and I can assure you, it was a fruitless endeavor.

He was followed by the Gov. who commenced his harangue by saying that "through the kind providence of God he had been made Governor." His speech was very bitter, and I suppose according to the length of it, contained less truth than any other we will hear this campaign. As their crowd was almost entirely negroes they did not fail to try to impress upon them that Gov. Vance was the white man's candidate. This argument which will not be denied was the most truthful that they made, but we are determined that he shall be the people's Governor.

Their vote will be greatly decreased here. Brogden and Hargrove will do no good wherever they go.

Yours respectfully,
CONSERVATIVE.

Letter from Nash.

WHITAKER'S, N. C., Aug. 19, 1876.
Mr. Editor:—As the circulation of your paper is increasing here a few lines from this section may not prove entirely uninteresting. A Fildes and Vance Club has been organized here, and is in good working order. A spirit of enthusiasm seems to permeate the bosom of almost every honest man, and we recognize fully the fact that no State or National contest has been more far reaching in its consequences, but the signs of the times are promising, and even here we believe that unmistakably to the largest Democratic vote old Edgecombe has given in years. It is a source of consolation to be able to chronicle such news from this place; a little place whose fair name has been blackened by the commission of three or four of the foulest and most heinous murders that the annals of North Carolina history gives a record of, but in every single instance committed by negroes and members of the Radical party, though as white men were the victims Gen. Grant nor his friend Belmont would see need of federal bayonets here.

We hope that the officials will see to it that no 18 or 20 year old boys vote in the coming election. The election will be borne out by almost any intelligent man in this community.

Some legislation providing for a record of births would be of great place. The purity of the ballot box, and its future protection, entitle this matter to some consideration.

We are delighted down here at the brilliant canvass our leader is making among the hills of the West. We promise to work here. We believe the north is at work. And now, men of the west, meet us in Raleigh in November, with your biggest effort, and we will shake hands over the grandest achievement of this century—the election of Samuel J. Tilden and Zebulon B. Vance.

Prominent Radicals of long standing are coming out every day from among the horde of prowling hungry hyenas, who seek to devastate our land, and a number of them here joined our Tilden and Vance Club with the avowed determination of attaining by their future good works for the misery and want they have helped to create in the past. The sun of our prosperity is rising; and by the 7th of November his rays will cause the heart of every true Democrat to thrill with pleasure it has not known or felt for years.

Mr. R. H. Battle, Jr., of your city, addressed our club at its last meeting and delivered an effective and telling speech. Respectfully, REFORM.

Col. H. M. Shaw.

OXFORD, N. C., Aug. 24, '76.
Mr. Editor:—The following article has been sent me. It was prepared by the editor of the Biblical Recorder, Rev. J. D. Hulham, for his paper. As the error he corrects appeared in the News, I send it to you that the correction may be seen by your readers:

"We think that the accomplished and usually accurate correspondent of the News was nodding—as even the great Homer was said to do occasionally—while he wrote the sentence which we have quoted above. The tribute to Col. Shaw is merited, for he was a brave and gifted man, but was not killed at Roanoke Island, in battle. It was during a reconciliation between Kinston and New Bern, and we are not mistaken. There was a sharp-shooter, who had climbed a tree, fired at long range and shot the Col. through the head, killing him instantly. There was no other firing and no one else was hurt. We have a distinct recollection of Gen. Clinch's beating on his touching announcement of Col. Shaw's death, and our impression is that the other facts are as we have stated above. However, our excellent friend will not rest until he gets the matter all straight, now that we have called his attention to it."

I am glad to be corrected. As I knew that Col. Shaw was in the fight at Goldsboro, in December, 1863, I do not know how I came to think at the time I wrote that he fell at Roanoke Island. I had, however, forgotten the particulars of his death.
T. B. KINGSBURY.

The Hargrove Speech—A Radical's Statement.

OXFORD N. C. Aug. 28th 1876.
Mr. Editor:—I see a letter in your paper of the 28th inst., from Mr. Wm. A. Davis of this place in which he says that I was his authority for saying that Col. Hargrove made the speech referred to by him in your paper of its same date in relation to the "Lowery Gang." Now all that I want to say is that I did not inform Mr. Davis of any such speech, for Col. Hargrove did not make the speech referred to by Mr. Davis; that I knew I did not tell him any such thing; and Mr. Davis there and then stated publicly in the presence of Messrs. E. Puryear, J. H. Stegall, Hogwood and others "that I was not his authority; that some one else told him I told him I said that Col. Hargrove delivered such a speech." Please insert the above as you have inserted Mr. Davis' letter and oblige, Yours truly,
JAMES I. MOORE.

The Public Speaking in Forsyth—A Ringing Endorsement of Vance's Course in the War.

The Salem Press of August 27th 1876, contains the following:

In pursuance to previous notice a very large and respectable assemblage of citizens of Forsyth, and adjoining counties convened in the courthouse in Winston, on Wednesday, the 26th instant. The courthouse being in need of repair, the meeting was variously estimated at from 1,200 to 1,500, adjourned to the grove; and on motion of J. Boner, Esq., George V. Fuip, Esq., was called to the chair, and John Blackburn, Esq., John H. White, D. F. Spach and John I. Nielsen, Esq., acted as appointed secretaries. Whereupon the chairman made a few suitable remarks, and called upon D. H. STARRUCK, who, in a few eloquent and appropriate remarks, explained the object of the meeting.

On motion, the chair appointed a committee of one from each captain's district to draft resolutions for the consideration of the meeting.

The committee having retired to draft resolutions, by request General James I. Moore, Esq., was appointed to read the meeting in one of his most eloquent and happy efforts.

Resolved That we most solemnly protest against the suspension of the great writ of habeas corpus under any circumstances, except such as are expressly provided for by the constitution.

Resolved, That if ever military rule shall be established to control and subvert the civil authority of the State, then liberty will end and despotism begin."

Resolved That the only safeguard to civil and religious liberty is the supremacy of the civil over the military power, and that the highest need of praise is due to the Supreme Court, its learned Chief Justice and other Judges, who, when the liberty of the citizen was in danger of being stricken down by the strong arm of military power, firmly and patriotically stood by the law and impartially administered justice to the weak and defenseless.

Resolved That the firm and patriotic course of GOVERNOR VANCE (whom we warmly supported for that office) in upholding the judicial authorities and the civil power against the assumption of the military meets with our hearty approval, and commands the united support of all good citizens; and that we have a firm faith in his conservatism, and that neither the fulsome flattery nor deceitful praise nor dexterous appliances of unprincipled partisans who before his election traduced his principles and slandered his name, can serve him from his duty, nor even tempt him to the abandonment of his conservative principles or his friends.

After the adoption of the resolutions, Dr. W. H. WHEELER was loudly called for by the people, and responded in a very eloquent speech, which commanded the respect and undivided attention of all present, after which the meeting adjourned.

GEO. V. PULP, Chairman.

A Resume of General Intelligence from Across the Waters.

VIENNA, Aug. 30.—It is stated that Prince Nicholas, of Montenegro, has informed Milan that he need not consider himself bound by the agreement made at the beginning of the war, that neither should he enter upon peace negotiations.

A council of ministers has been held at Constantinople to consider the peace proposals handed the Grand Vizier separately. Russia opposed the conditions that Serbia should first sue directly for peace to the Porte but has abandoned that position.

BERLIN, Aug. 30.—It is announced that diplomatic agents have been ordered to make a joint note from their respective governments, declaring that they will take mediation into their own hands, and have directed the ambassadors how to proceed to stop hostilities.

PANAMA, Aug. 30.—The revolution in Colombia continues.

The President of Costa Rica has been overthrown and a provisional government established.

A Chinese riot recently occurred at Fragilla. An overseer was murdered by the Asiatics, some of whom the indignant people shot.

LONDON, Aug. 30.—Felician Caesar David, the well-known musician and composer, is dead.

MADRID, Aug. 30.—The Governor of Porto Rico has been officially notified of the royal decree ordering the issue of indemnity bonds to the owners of liberated slaves.

The Emperor of Brazil is shortly expected here. During his sojourn he will be received into membership of the society of political economy. King Alfonso will preside at the reception.

A Depot Burned and a Quantity of Freight with It.

INCINNATI, Aug. 30.—The Dayton Short Line Railroad depot and contents, were destroyed by fire this morning. The fire originated among a lot of coal oil barrels. The depot was a brick building, four hundred feet by eighty, valued at $25,000. An unusually large amount of freight was stored in the building, principally for merchants of this city. The loss on freight was $150,000 to $200,000 upon which there was very little if any insurance. As the law makes railroad companies responsible for goods stored in freight houses only for a period of twenty-four hours, a large part of the loss will fall upon consignees, most of the freight having been stored for two or three days.

Unprovoked Outrage in Louisiana.

MONROE, La., Aug. 30.—This city and vicinity are excited over the firing into several residences and an attempt to kill a planter living below here. Several white families from the vicinity are here for safety. There is no cause for this outrage, which throws the whole parish into excitement. Appeal has been made to a volunteer company here for assistance.

Assembling of the New York Democratic Convention.

SARATOGA, Aug. 30.—The Democratic State Convention assembled at noon. The hall was handsomely decorated, and much good feeling was manifested. Many spectators were present. Rufus W. Peckham was chosen temporary chairman, and addressed the Convention.

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON.

Mail Committee Organized.—Blacksmiths in the Government Printing Office to "Trump" the Name of a Suicide—Getting Away with the Indians.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—The Mail Transportation Committee organized, today, with Gardner H. Hubbard President, and Geo. A. Bassett, Secretary.

Public Printer Clapp has issued a circular ordering the discharge of all whom the foremen of the several branches find deficient as skillful workmen.

The person who committed suicide at the Orange Mountain House, N. J., Saturday, was Claude L. Avenstine, formerly apothecary in the navy on the steamer Monongahela.

Although no recent intelligence has been received at army headquarters concerning the movements of Crook and Terry, it is believed that their operations against the hostile Sioux will be ultimately successful, in respect that the country in which the Indians now are, affords but little support and they may disperse into small bands. But the troops are so disposed as to render them powerless for mischief. Since the Center massacre, temporary military posts and depots for supplies have been established, which will aid materially military operations and hem in the savages from escape. "Reckoning is progressing satisfactorily, and in a short time, all the men authorized will be obtained.

Ringing Utterances in the Resolutions.

HORATIO SEYMOUR NOMINATED BY ACCLAMATION.

SARATOGA, Aug. 30.—When Morrissey's name was called, there was applause. The usual committees were appointed and recess was taken to 7 o'clock.

Hiram Gray was made permanent President. Horatio Seymour and John Kelly were chosen Electors at Large. The platform, after declarations somewhat similar to Lord's resolutions concludes:

Resolved, That we as American citizens and Democrats, devoted to the union and equality of the States, and to the honor and good name of the Federal Government, hereby enter our solemn protest against the recent order of the Secretary of War, approved by the President of the United States to place Government troops in the Southern States with a view to intimidate the people and to control their elections. A government by the bayonet, to take the place of a government through the ballot, is an outrage which demands the condemnation of all who have Republican freedom and hate despotic power.

LATER.—Horatio Seymour has been nominated by acclamation.

FOREIGN.

Report of Another Battle.—Montenegro Doesn't Want Mediation.—Anxiety in Serbia.—The Russians About to Take the War in their Own Hands.—Exaggerated Reports of Alexander's Fighting, &c.

RAGUSA, Aug. 30.—It is reported that a battle was fought, yesterday, at Podgoritz. Details are wanting. Djedjeleddin Pasha's command, including ten guns has reached Terehinge unopposed.

CETTINGE, Aug. 2.—The Montenegrin official newspaper publishes an article rejecting foreign mediation, and declaring that Serbia and Montenegro will not abandon the conflict until the Slavonian provinces are completely forced from the Turkish yoke.

LONDON, Aug. 30.—A special from Belgrade to the Times, says: "The keenest anxiety is felt here. The prospect of an armistice every day increases the danger of the war spreading. The Serbian army is fast becoming a Russian auxiliary force, fighting on Serbian soil, the Russians exposing themselves in the front of the battle with remarkable valor. Out of forty-eight men who fought as a company at Alexander, thirty were left dead on the field. The Serbians becoming jealous, and afraid of the Russians, feel the control of their army slipping from their hands, and will joyfully accept peace if it can be obtained on good terms."

The seven days' fighting before Alexander has been greatly exaggerated. It is estimated that the Serbian's entire loss was only a few hundred killed and about twenty-three hundred wounded. No lists of the killed and wounded have been published since the beginning of the war.

ROME, Aug. 30.—It is affirmed that the cardinal have unanimously resolved to omit certain ceremonies in the election of a new Pope, in order to keep the conclave free from foreign powers.

ALABAMA.

Democratic Nomination.—The Last Republican Governor Out for Tilden.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., Aug. 30.—Hon. Jere N. Williams was nominated for Congress, to-day, from the Third District by the Democrats. Hon. David P. Lewis, the last Republican Governor of Alabama, is out in a letter declaring for Tilden and Reform.

Republican Nominations in Connecticut—Jewell on the Electoral Ticket.

NEW HAVEN, CT., Aug. 30.—In the Republican State Convention, Jewell was President. The Convention nominated the following electoral ticket at large: ex-President Theo. D. Woolsey, of Yale College, and Hon. Marshall Jewell. The District Electors were also chosen, and the old State ticket re-nominated.

Result of the Philadelphia Boat Race.

PHILADELPHIA, August 30.—The Beaverwicks won in 9:4; London second, Watkins third. The boats were as close at the finish, that it took the judges some time to decide. The Londons were 18 inches behind the Beaverwicks, and the Watkins were close up.

The Yellow Fever Excitement in Savannah Subsidized.

SAVANNAH, GA., Aug. 30.—The yellow fever here is not epidemic. There have been only thirty-nine reported cases during the season, and ten deaths up to date. The excitement has subsided.

The Molly Maguires Deny.

WILKESBARRE, Aug. 30.—The persons arrested for the murder of Crosby by Brady, allege that Brady was stealing oil at that time, and the Molly Maguires had nothing to do with the murder.

Coal Reduced in New York.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—Retail dealers have reduced the price of coal a dollar a ton.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Mecklenburg Court is in session.

Another rape has been committed in Mecklenburg. This time by a negro man upon a little negro girl 7 years old.

While some negroes were digging a tank in Charlotte, the dirt caved in and Monroe Harshaw was badly injured.

There are between 80 and 100 visitors at Cleveland Springs.

Mr. Alexander Mitchell, an old citizen of Newbern, is dead.

The Wilmington Review has suspended permanently.

Monroe Enquirer: As Jim Winchester, a colored believer in Tilden and Vance was coming up from the depot a few days ago he got into a conversation with some other negroes, when from some innocent, playful remark from Jim, a quarrel followed, and a fight ensued in which Jim was held by one of the negroes and badly abused and beaten by the other. After the fight was over, it was discovered from the insulting language and abuse of the two negroes, that the true cause of the quarrel and fight was that Jim was a "d-d white man's party." Another cause of the same character happened here on last Sabbath.

THE NORTH CAROLINA

FARMER.

J. H. ENNIS:

Dear Sir:—I have been a practical farmer for forty years, and during that time have taken the best agricultural journals of the day, and I undertake to say that there is no valuable practical information to our

States in the first and second numbers of the "North Carolina Farmer," than in any other paper of the kind published in our land, and I do most earnestly recommend it to every farmer in our State, as the best paper for him.

PETER E. HINES,

Hallifax County.
